

International Dialogues on current conflicts at EU's Eastern borders

The Institute for Interdisciplinary Gender Research and Diversity and the International Office invite you to join the online event “International Dialogues on current conflicts at EU's Eastern borders”, which brings together two proven experts from Georgia and Lithuania as well as two partner universities (Erasmus) to provide background information on the Russian-Ukrainian conflict.

Students from all participating universities are welcome to join.

5 May 2022, 3 – 4.30 p.m. (CET)

Ketevan Korkashvili

Business and Technology
University, Tbilisi, Georgia

Russia's quest for Great Power status: parallels between 2008 Russo-Georgian War and 2022
Russo-Ukrainian War

Prof Dr Virgis Valentinavicius

Institute of Communication at the Mykolas Romeris University, Vilnius, Lithuania

Lithuania and EU ban on Putin's propaganda: long overdue, but much welcome

The event takes place via zoom. You will receive the link by mail in due time